Faculty of Law

Student Code of Conduct according to paragraph 1.3 of the Study Regulations Law Summer School (LSS) Bangalore

RS 4.3.4.2
Version 1.1 (31 July 2013)

On 10 April 2013 the Faculty Assembly decided as follows:

Students who are admitted to the Law Summer School (LSS) Bangalore are asked to sign this code of conduct contract which is sent out with the letter of admission to the course.

The following rules and regulations apply to all students of LSS Bangalore, both on and off campus and are strictly enforced. Failure to adhere to these rules will result in the individual student(s) being warned and possibly dismissed from the course without entitlement to any refund.

1 Rules and Regulations

1.1 Attendance
Students are expected to be active and engaged participants by attending all classes they have enrolled in as well as all time-tabled activities such as roundtables and official visits, and completing all coursework on time. Opting out of group activities is not encouraged.

The course director must be informed of any absence. An absence due to illness in excess of three days must be documented with a medical certificate. It is the student’s responsibility to obtain the papers and information regarding the classes he/she missed from his/her fellow students.

A student who neglects coursework, is inadequately prepared, or disrupts the course’s progress with inappropriate behaviour may be required to withdraw from the course. No tuition or fees are refunded to students who are required to withdraw.

All mobile phones and other electronic devices, with the exception of laptops, must be switched off during all classes and time-tabled activities.

1.2 Academic Integrity
LSS Bangalore expects students to understand and maintain high standards of academic integrity.

Students may not copy another student’s assignment or exam. Collaboration in the completion of written assignments is prohibited unless explicitly permitted by the instructor. Students must acknowledge any collaboration and its extent in all submitted coursework.

1.3 Password-Protected Online Resources
Students receive passwords to access course materials available online. They must not disclose the received passwords to any third party.
1.4 Behaviour on and off Campus
As a member of the LSS Bangalore community and a guest of the National Law School of India University (NLSIU), students are expected to behave in a responsible manner always, both on and off campus, and to be courteous and respectful of fellow students and of members of the faculty and staff even where there is no specific rule requiring that behaviour.

1.5 Alcohol and Drugs
Any consumption or possession of illegal drugs is grounds for immediate dismissal. Consumption and possession of alcohol is strictly forbidden on campus and in the residences.

1.6 Dress Code
Students are required to dress appropriately and in accordance with the local customs.

1.7 Male/Female Relations
Students are expected to respect the local social conventions.

1.8 Halls of Residence
Students must abide to the rules of their residence at all times. They are expected to treat their rooms and common areas with respect and will be billed for any and all damages they incur. Occupants of double rooms are jointly responsible for loss or damage unless specific information establishes individual responsibility. Visitors are only allowed in the common areas.

2 Confirmation
I have read all the information and policies of the LSS Bangalore Program. I understand these regulations and recognize that failure to comply with them will jeopardise my continuation in the LSS Bangalore Program.

Student Signature: ______________________________ Date: ______________________________