

Curie Wang

PhD Candidate, Faculty of Law, University of Zurich

curie.wang@ius.uzh.ch | orcid.org/0009-0002-0741-7362

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Current research: Repugnant Transactions and Market Design; Behavioral Law & Economics; Empirical Legal Studies; Regulation of Assisted Reproductive Technologies

Other interests: Financial Regulation (Basel framework); Crime, Gun Control, and Organized Crime

WORKING PAPERS

Compensation and Repugnance in Egg Donation Markets (PhD project)

- Legal-theoretical analysis of compensation design
- Empirical study (US/UK) on supply and crowding-out effects
- Survey experiment on framing and public perception

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

PhD in Law, University of Zurich (2025 –)

Supervisor: Prof. Dr. Dr. Yoan Hermstrüwer

URPP Human Reproduction Reloaded (H2R), Sub-project: Normativity of Human Reproduction

Research Assistant, Erasmus University Rotterdam (2025)

National project on FAIR data implementation in Dutch Social Sciences and Humanities (SSH).

ACTIVITIES

Beckerian Framing of the Liquidity Coverage Ratio: Does Enforcement Intensity Shape Compliance? (Speaker) 13 Feb 2026, EMLE Midterm Meeting 2026

AWARDS

Best Thesis Award, Erasmus Mundus LL.M

EDUCATION

LL.M. Law and Economics (Erasmus Mundus), cum laude (2024 – 2025)

MSc Economics of Competition and Regulation, Utrecht University (2023 – 2024)

BSc Economics (2013 – 2017)

METHODS & SKILLS

Econometrics (Stata, Python)

Experimental design

Microeconomic modeling

Comparative legal analysis

LANGUAGES

Cantonese (native), Mandarin (native), English (C1), Japanese (N3)