

Faculty of Law, Maastricht University (The Netherlands)

1. Overall impression

very good

2. Making preparations

(e.g. administrative matters, finding information)

best is to ask former students. the documents received on introduction day at the faculty will help to.

3. Contacts/Responsibilities

(e.g. important contact persons at the Partner University and Faculty)

none. your tutors are very helpful

4. Housing / Finding accomodation

best is to ask the current student - perhaps you can take their flat

5. Arrival

not easy from zürich: airports: Brussels, Dusseldorf, Cologne, AMsterdam, Eindhoven. --> none of which are great for Maastricht. As from Dusseldorf and Cologne its very tough to get to Maastricht - unless you find a Blablacar.com

6. Telephone (e.g. costs, carriers)

vodafoe: 10euro for 1gb internet for 30 days

7. Bank account

didnt have one throughout.

8. Transport (e.g. from Switzerland, to the University)

not easy from zürich: airports: Brussels, Dusseldorf, Cologne, AMsterdam, Eindhoven. --> none of which are great for Maastricht. As from Dusseldorf and Cologne it's very tough to get to Maastricht - unless you find a Blablacar.com

the city is so small you can walk everywhere

9. General information about the Partner Faculty and student life

very high quality teaching, better than zürich in all aspects. more students work on a weekly basis

10. Teaching and studying at the Partner Faculty

(e.g. program structure, methodology, exams, etc.)

PBL is more for the bachelor's programmes - not so present in our masters. exams are 3 hours in the mecc - something similar to where we took exams in zürich or Eindhoven.

11. City (e.g. cultural activities, sports, discounts, nightlife, must-sees, short trips, etc.)

go to the burrito shop on Markt, the friendly staff will help you with everything. you can become friends with them easily they are open minded. they are the secret mayors of the city so they know everything and everyone
