

University of
Zurich ^{UZH}

CIMELS / UZHR

Constitutions Against Revolutions

Who strangled revolutionary aspirations in North Africa?

Political participation was at the heart of revolutions that were popularly dubbed as the Arab Spring. What happened to political participation during the ensuing Islamist Autumn and Military Winter? The constitution-making process offers us a few insights into the stifling of political participation, against any romantic view we may hold on constitutions.

Guest lecture by

Prof. Dr. Gianluca Parolin, American University of Cairo (AUC)

When: Monday, 14th April 2014, 18:15-19:45

Where: UZH-Main Building, Rämistrasse 71, KOL-F-104 , free entry

A joint organisation by:

University of
Zurich ^{UZH}

Center for Islamic and
Middle Eastern Legal Studies

University of
Zurich ^{UZH}

Competence Center for Human Rights