

University of
Zurich<sup>UZH</sup>

CIMELS / UZHR

In a Different Voice?

The Appointment of Women Judges in Egypt and Morocco

Morocco was one of the first Muslim majority countries to appoint female judges (1961), Egypt one of the last (2003). What are the differences in appointment of women judges between these two countries? Do women judges rule "in a different voice," i.e. do female judges decide cases differently than male judges?

Guest lecture by

Dr. Nadia Sonneveld, Radboud University Nijmegen, The Netherlands

When: Monday, 25th April 2016, 17:30 – 19:00

Where: UZH-Main Building, Rämistrasse 71, KOL-G-217, free entry

Organised by:

University of
Zurich<sup>UZH</sup>

Center for Islamic and Middle Eastern Legal Studies

In Cooperation with:

University Zurich, Faculty of Arts, Gender Studies
Société Suisse d'Etudes Genre (SSEG)